

QUOTES & REVIEWS

“Carolina Brass’ often lush and multi-colored sound engulfs the listener like a warm bear hug. It is also well-suited to just about any style. . . . The group can swing like a hard-driving big band one moment and play a soft ballad with the utmost in feeling and sensitivity the next.”

Ken Keuffel – Winston-Salem Journal

“We can’t thank you enough for the special efforts you put forth to make Monday’s visit with General Colin Powell a true success. . . . Carolina Brass performed beautifully and was a lovely addition to our evening.”

Dorothea Bitler, Executive Director – WakeMed Foundation, Raleigh, NC

“Carolina Brass performances for our Muse Machine program were a smash hit. Your combination of superb musicianship and a great sense of humor earned rave reviews from all the schools, which is not an easy feat. You were wonderful to work with and we look forward to having you back in Spartanburg very soon.”

Ava Hughes, Art Education Director – Arts Partnership of Spartanburg, SC

“Carolina Brass . . . a quintet of unique diversity in style and musicality, possessing enthusiasm, energy and a deep sense of professionalism. Carolina Brass surely is a wonderful ministry through music.”

Ashby Brown, Minister of Music – Jamestown United Methodist Church, NC

“Simply elegant, the Carolina Brass was the champagne touch to our daughter’s beautiful garden wedding at The Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia, July 2006. From easy consultation to custom repertoire design, lovely prelude to majestic fanfare processional, Dixieland reception and even improvisation with our soul dance band—the Carolina Brass was just superb and set the tone for the most joyous of occasions. Thank you, guys, for touching our hearts and gracing our memories with your glorious music (enjoyed by all of the guests listening from hotel balconies!). It was a perfect day.”
